Organisational Context

The Glenelg Hopkins Catchment Management Authority (CMA) was established in 1997 to effectively and efficiently deliver land, water and biodiversity programs that protect and enhance landscapes as well as support thriving communities.

We connect individuals and interest groups who live on, work with, and enjoy our land and waterways with reliable information, valuable opportunities, and inspirational motivation so that the community is informed, empowered, and enabled to create a sustainable South West Victoria.

Our organisation is committed to our three key values of 'Pro-active, Professional and Innovative' that underpin our workplace culture.

There are three program areas within the GHCMA: Corporate Services, Land Health and Biodiversity, and Waterways. These are supported by the CEO office which manages the relationship with the Board and provides cross organisational support relating to the involvement and reputation of the CMA.

Position Purpose

The People and Culture (P&C) Advisor sits within Corporate Services and partners the program areas to enable and deliver effective strategies and programs relating to;

- Human Resources Management
- Wellbeing, Health & Safety; and
- Culture and Change programs.

The position is a key provider of authoritative advice and services to Executive and Managers on all facets of human resources management and proactively participates in and contributes to the Corporate Services leadership team.

The purpose of this position is to provide operational and strategic support within all facets of human resources, and to be the first point of contact for employees and external parties regarding employment matters.
