

ON-FARM FIELD DAY

Co-benefits of incorporating trees into farming systems: Dunkeld case study 'Blackwood'

Explore the co-benefits of incorporating trees on farms including livestock productivity gains, carbon sequestration, and other environmental services.

May 9, 2023
10.30am – 3pm
'Blackwood' Penshurst

FIELD DAY PROGRAM

10.30am - 11am: Meet at Blackwood woolshed
597 Blackwood-Dunkeld Road, Penshurst
coffee and tea provided

11am - 12pm: Speaker presentations
MC - Andrew Stewart, Otway Agroforestry Network

SPEAKERS

- Kai Dailey, Dunkeld Pastoral Co conservation manager: Dunkeld planting program objectives and planning
- Rachelle Meyer, University of Melbourne researcher: Livestock productivity and carbon sequestration
- Lachlan Farrington, Nature Glenelg Trust ecologist: Ecosystem services and associated on-farm benefits

12pm - 1pm Lunch (please RSVP for catering & dietary requirements)
1pm - 3pm Revegetation tour

Representatives from Dunkeld Pastoral, Glenelg Hopkins CMA, Nature Glenelg Trust and the Otway Agroforestry Network will be available to provide additional information.

For further information contact Rachelle Meyer
at meyer.r@unimelb.edu.au

REGISTER
HERE by May 7

